PARKING AND START TRAIN STATION OF ALLIÈRES ROUTE D'ALLIÈRES 80, 1669 LES ALLIÈRES

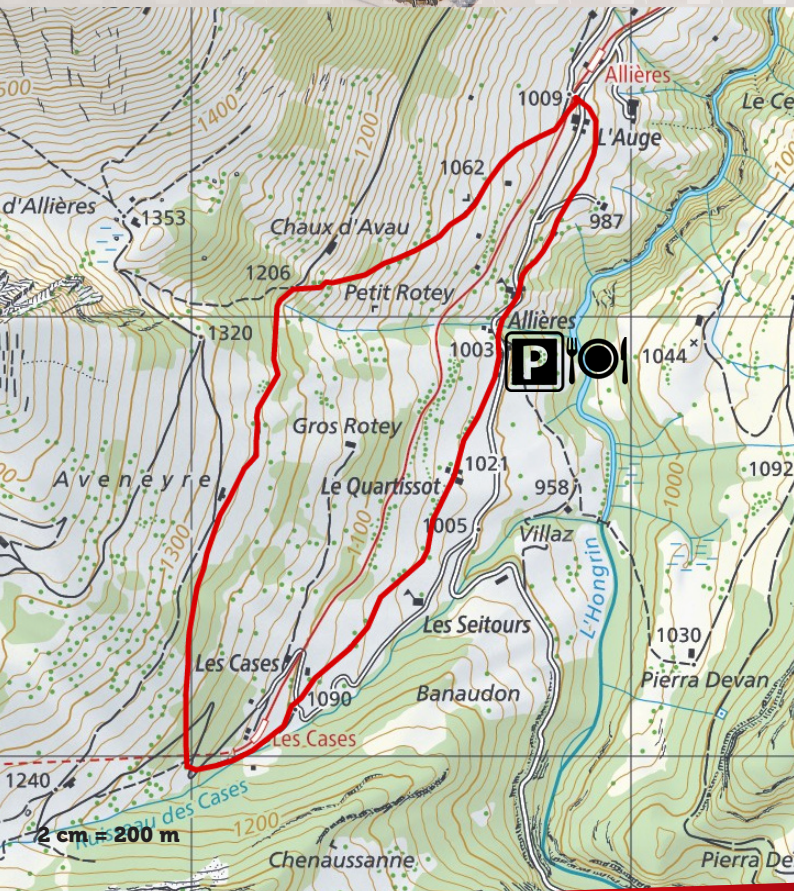

Running either side of the railway, with views over the hamlet of Allières and the mountain pastures of Le Revers, this is a pleasant route in the pure air, both by day and at night.

From the La Croix-de-Fer hotel-restaurant, take the "barlatay" mule track that took cheese from La Gruyère to Lyon in the last century.

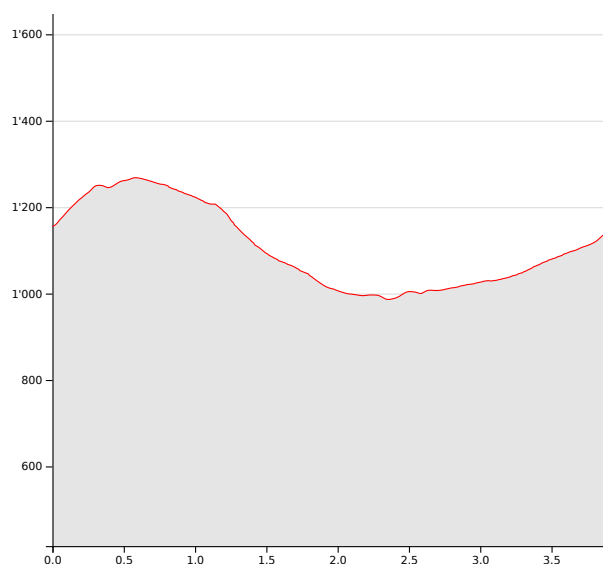

Follow in their footsteps at a pleasant, gentle pace and relive the atmosphere of the era before the development of the motor car, to appreciate the beauty of a region on a human scale that has retained its authentic feel.

Leaving behind the view of the Dent de Jaman to the west – part of the Alpes vaudoises, rising to a height of 1,875 m – head north to the Chalet du Rotey at the end of the trail. Take a moment to admire the bucolic view over the Allières valley and then drop down through the mountain pastures to the station.

This unprepared itinerary is marked. You take this trail at your own risk. Snowshoeing is done in the mountains, therefore, certain rules must be respected for your safety.
